About

Les Vignerons de Florensac is a wine cooperative consisting of 89 growers, rich in ancestral knowledge, working together to produce the best of each grape varietal in respect of the local environment and terrior. The terrior is home to one of the oldest planted vineyards in the region and benefits from the cooling breezes of the Mediterranean coast.

Tasting Notes

A delightful combination of Cinsault and Merlot grapes, grown in the Côte de Thau in the South of France. This lovingly produced soft rosé is full of strawberries and redcurrent flavours with a light floral aroma.

Tasting Notes

This delicious, dry white is a dual varietal made with Piquepoul and Terret grapes, grown overlooking the oyster beds of the Bassin de Thau in the South of France. It is both light and fruity, with less acidity than a classic Piquepoul wine making it ideal for summer. Delightfully refreshing served chilled on its own or with al fresco dining.
